"WHITEWASHING DONE HERE."

If any one desires to retain a souvenir of the Harding administration, new leader for oblivion, he or she can cut out and frame the following letter from President Harding to the notorious Nat. Goldstein of St. Louis, who admitted having taken $2,500 of Lowden campaign funds when a candidate for delegate to the Republican National Convention of 1920, and who was later named by President Harding for Collector of Internal Revenue at St. Louis:

"My Dear Mr. Goldstein: I have been intending for some days to make an acknowledgment of the very gracious and considerate letter which you addressed to me under date of May 10.

"You very promptly recognized a difficult political situation, for which neither of us is responsible, and you took yourself out of it in a very prompt and considerate way. I should like you to know of my understanding of your feelings and my appreciation of your thoughtfulness in helping to solve it, though you were fully conscious of the underserving character of the attack which your nomination brought out. I can assure you that Senator Spencer has said only the most pleasing things concerning you, and I should not have so approved of your nomination.

"With very best regards, I am, very sincerely, WARREN G. HARDING."

"In view of President Harding's endorsement of Senator Newberry before the Newberry case was decided in the Senate; his determination to stand by Attorney General Daugherty despite the serious charges against that official and the above certificate of character to Goldstein, it is suggested that the next Billboard advertisement of prosperity credited to the White House shall also bear the sign 'Whitewashing Done Here.'"

WHY SCHOOLS COST MORE.

The rising cost of education has given many citizens a good deal to think about. Very naturally, too, because there is no public undertaking in which the citizen should be more interested, there is nothing which affects him more permanently than do the schools in his community. When he has reached an age at which they no longer touch him directly, they reach him through his children. Schools are the means by which an orderly social progress is maintained.

Whatever may be the story told by a comparison of education cost today with those of an earlier time, the situation is not properly understood unless it is kept in mind that the school today attempts to do infinitely more than did the school of three or four decades ago. There is almost no comparison between what the school considered its duty to the child a generation ago, and that it does for the boy and girl of today.

If it were nothing more than the fact that children today go to school until later in life than they did formerly, even that might be sufficient cause for what is mistakenly called the rising cost of education. As compared to the number of pupils who finished the eighth grade three decades ago the number who go this far at the present time is astonishingly large.

We direct all their learning and activities to the end that they may become not merely intelligent and understanding parents when this duty comes to them; we try to lay in the schools the proper foundation for intelligent citizenship on their part. Nor is our educational aim directed only to giving these boys and girls something for the future. Much more than the school of yesterday did, does the school of today look after the present needs of the child.

Unless the school fails to reach him altogether, it tries to educate and train the pupil so that in the home he may be a happier and more desirable member of the family group.

This is truly a great undertaking; but it is the working ideal of the modern school. And so when people talk about the rising cost of the modern school, they must not forget that it has set for itself a gigantic task, and that the accomplishment of this task may well be worth all that is asked for it.—Tampa Tribune.

HISTORY REPEATING ITSELF.

LILLY WHITES TO BREAK AWAY FROM REGULAR REPUBS

Form Independent Party at Orlando to Exclude Negroes

(By Associated Press)

Orlando, June 20.—Openly advocating breaking away from the old guard of the republican party in Florida and addressing an appeal to the white republicans of the state based upon elimination of the negro from every public office, the independent republican party was born in Orlando last night when a group of citizens gathered in a local assembly hall, repudiated any connection whatsoever with the negro brethren of their political faith and denounced the policies of their party leaders as destined to "continue to hold the party in political slavery."

The negro republican and the present white republican leaders were denounced as responsible for the disfranchising of the white republicans of Florida. It was decided to put candidates in the field in opposition to the nominees of the "regular" followers of the party and to attempt to organize the independent forces in every county in the state. The party's declaration of principles as voiced by its leaders will contain a plank recommending that only white American citizens be elected to office of any kind.

Several speakers said that Washington will not approve of our action.

W. C. Lawson, a real estate man of this city, was elected chairman of the organization, with Chester Kenison and G. H. Sutherland as secretary and treasurer respectively. Candidates for every office to be filled at the election in November in this county will be placed on the ticket, through petitions. The recent convention of the party at Palatka was described as "enough to make your blood boil" and those in charge of the convention were referred to as "carpet baggers."

WOMAN'S CHAPTER OF MOOSEHEART TO MEET

The woman's chapter of the Mooseheart Legion will meet tonight at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to be present, as business of importance is to be transacted.

drawn from the institution, according to resolutions adopted today by the conference. The action of the board of trustees in the re-election of Professor Davis, after he had been tried upon charges of teaching evolution, was condemned by the conference.—News Item.

In the year 1530 Nicholas Copernicus, a Polish astronomer, published his findings as to the movements of the heavenly bodies. Briefly, he upset the theories held until his time that the earth was the center of the solar system and that the sun and stars revolved around the earth. He found, and his conclusions are universally accepted now, that the sun was the center of the system and that the stars, including the earth, revolved around the sun.

One hundred years later Galileo Galilei, an Italian physicist and astronomer, confirmed by the use of the telescope, the conclusions of Copernicus, and published a book approving the Copernican theory of the universe.

Then what happened? We get the answer from the encyclopedia: "A congregation of cardinals, monks and mathematicians examined his work, condemned it as highly dangerous and summoned him before the tribunal of the inquisition. The veteran philosopher was compelled to go to Rome, was condemned to renounce, in the presence of a great assembly, kneeling before them, with his hand upon the gospel, the great truths he had maintained. His book was prohibited and his system condemned as contrary to the Bible."

Is history repeating itself? Are we really becoming more enlightened?—Miami Herald.

FLETCHER OFFERS PLAN TO DEEPEN ST. JOHNS RIVER

Senator Wants Twenty Feet of Water Into Palatka

(By Associated Press)

The following amendment to the present rivers and harbors bill proposed by Senator Fletcher will do much toward helping navigation as far as Lake Monroe on the St. Johns river. It will remove bends in the river by making cutoffs and will improve navigation in many ways and give the river a chance to prove its merits as an inland waterway. The following is the official amendment as proposed in the senate by Senator Fletcher:

"In the senate of the United States April 20 (calendar day, June 2), 1922, referred to the committee on commerce and ordered to be printed.

"Mr. Sheppard submitted the following amendment intended to be proposed by Mr. Fletcher to the bill (H. R. 10766), authorizing the construction, repair, and preservation of certain public works on rivers and harbors, and for other purposes, viz: On page 16, after line 14, insert the following:

"Saint Johns river, Florida, from Palatka to Lake Monroe, with a view of making cutoffs and improving navigation."

The above is intended to provide for a preliminary examination and survey by the board of engineers of the war department—to determine cost and necessity.

Should the report and recommendation of the engineers be favorable, action will then be taken to have congress make an appropriation to improve navigation between the points mentioned.

Storm Unroofs Grandstand at Jax Race Track

(By Associated Press)

Jacksonville, June 20.—An energized thunderstorm of cyclonic character lifted approximately 17,000 square feet of roofing—all there was—off the grandstand at the State Fair grounds, the Jacksonville Driving club, about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, carried it almost 150 feet and dumped it, a jumbled mass on the greensward. The damage is estimated at from $2,500 to $3,000. W. R. Carter, president of the Driving club, said last night. A new roof will be placed on the stand at once.

WEEKLY TICKETS ARE ISSUED ON MIAMI TROLLEY LINES

(By Associated Press)

Miami, June 20.—Weekly tickets entitling the bearer to ride on street cars in Miami all day for 18 cents a day, have been issued by the Miami Beach Electric Company. The plan was adopted after other cities in the country had found that it virtually eliminated jitney traffic, which has made great inroads into trolley car receipts.

The new tickets are sold for $1.25 each and each entitles the bearer to ride all he pleases on all lines in the city from Monday morning until the following Sunday midnight.

HIS FRIEND RECOMMENDED THEM.

"Six years ago," writer W. H. Shadwell, Stanley, Va., "I had kidney trouble, and at times was unable to raise myself in bed. Foley Kidney Pills were recommended to me by the Chief of the Fire Department. After using 3 bottles I was completely relieved and have never had a return of the symptoms." Why suffer when you can get relief from rheumatic pains, backache, swollen, sore and stiff joints, sleep disturbing bladder weakness and other symptoms of disordered kidneys?

PALS DROP BACK INTO STRIDE IN GAME WITH OCALA

stepping in the other hole. Leon bounced one off Epp's glove, filling the bases. Van drove to third and Taylor was caught at the pan. Overstreet nipped up to Holden and Rymer's grounder to third forced Leon.

It was three up and three down for the locals until the fifth when Holden stung a clean single to center, but was forced when Gonzales, attempting to bunt, hit to pitcher, and was himself thrown out from short.

In their half of the fifth three of the Cats fanned.

At their seventh the Cats put their only two over. Van doubled down the third base line. Overstreet popped up to second, and Rymer fouled to left, too short for Van to score on. Ulrich's single to left counted two runs and Taylor flew out to center.

The Pals began putting on steam, and, after Peters and Quinn had singled, Larzo laid down a neat bunt, putting the two potent factors on second and third. Lindsey, sent in to pinch hit for Holden, took three balls and then hit the fourth one in the air to short. Gonzales retired the side with a bouncer to second.

In the twelfth Pete said it was time to go and busted one into the sack of flour in center. He paused just long enough to drag in a few cubic yards of ozone, then continued his way home on Quinn's bump to the same place. The score:

REV. D. F. BARRY TAKES CHARGE RODMAN CHURCH

(Special to The News.)

Rodman, June 20.—The Baptist church here has secured the services of Rev. D. F. Barry, from Hastings, Fla., and Brother Barry will begin his pastorate with us the first Sunday in July with a revival, doing the preaching himself. Brother Barry filled the pulpit last Sunday, June 18, and preached two stirring sermons on the subjects, "Behold Jesus," and "The Master Has Come and Calletch for Thee." These were great messages, and the speaker was greeted with large audiences at both morning and evening services. We might add that the church here is still holding up in the Holy Spirit, even though we have been without a pastor since Rev. Wiley Martin left us for his old home in west Florida. We greatly miss Brother Martin, but believe the Holy Spirit has led Brother Barry to us to fill his place.
